

SUFFERING ENDED

Mrs. Charles E. Hodgson, 20 Years an Invalid, Passes Away.

HERE ALMOST THIRTY YEARS

Born in Chicago and Married in Geneseo—Parents and Her Family Survive—Funeral Tomorrow.

Mrs. Charles E. Hodgson, after nearly 20 years of suffering from nervous troubles that rendered her an invalid, passed away last evening at 8 o'clock at the home, 1823 Fifth avenue. The immediate cause of death was a complication of heart trouble and dropsy. Mrs. Hodgson had resided in Rock Island 29 years, coming here in 1877 from Chicago.

Mrs. Hodgson, formerly Miss L. A. Clarke, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clarke of this city. She was born in Chicago Sept. 27, 1858. Her marriage to Mr. Hodgson occurred at Geneseo April 3, 1878. Besides her parents and husband, she leaves two sons, C. E. Hodgson, Jr., and George W. Hodgson.

Funeral Tomorrow.

Before coming to this city she was a member of the Second Baptist church of Chicago. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home. The services will be conducted by Rev. H. W. Reed, pastor of the First Baptist church. Burial will take place at the family lot in Chippannock cemetery.

THE WEATHER.

Showers tonight or Saturday; cooler Saturday.

Yesterday's northern and western storms have united, though distinct centers of low pressure are noted over upper Michigan and western Nebraska. Owing to this depression showers and occasional thunderstorms have occurred from Montana and Alberta to the middle Atlantic and New England coasts, and there has been a considerable rise in temperature from eastern Colorado and western Texas to Iowa. An area of high pressure, with clear skies and very cool weather, accompanied by light frost in Idaho and eastern Oregon, overlies the north Pacific slope. As these abnormal pressure areas advance eastward showers tonight or Saturday and cooler weather Saturday will result in this vicinity.

J. M. SHERIER, Local Forecaster.

Temperature at 7 a. m., 62°; at 3:30 p. m., 74°. Minimum temperature in 24 hours, 57°. Velocity of wind at 8 a. m., 6 miles.

NAGEL TO GO FREE?

Habeas Corpus By Supreme Court Orders Him Taken to Springfield

AT OCTOBER TERM OPENING

Attorneys for Defense Expect Prisoner's Discharge—Trial of Minor Charges.

Adair Pleasants of counsel for the defense in the Nagel murder case today received a writ of habeas corpus granted by the Illinois supreme court yesterday, returnable to the supreme court at the opening of the October term. The writ is directed to Sheriff Heider of Rock Island county and Sheriff Stiers of Henry county, who are ordered to produce the body of Nagel at Springfield at the opening of the term referred to.

Nagel's attorneys are confident that this order by the supreme court means eventually discharge of the prisoner. If this is the result, it will prove, not through any act on the part of the courts in the process of law, of course, but the inefficiency of Rock Island county's state's attorney, one of the most glaring miscarriages of justice in the history of Illinois crimes. That Nagel is guilty of cold-blooded murder no one at all familiar with the case will doubt. If he gets free it will not be the fault of the law, but the fault of the state.

The writ will be served on the sheriffs by the coroners of the respective counties.

The Minor Cases.

Upon the ruling issued by the supreme court yesterday in the Nagel murder case, Adair Pleasants and H. A. Weld, attorneys for the defendant, will ask for a continuance of the cases for minor offenses, which will come up in the Henry county circuit court Monday. The ground set up will be the uncertainty of the scope of the decision of the higher court. State's Attorney Scott will insist upon proceeding with the trial of one of the cases.

Whose Key Unlocked the Drawer?

Here is a true story told by a doctor. This doctor had a patient, a brother physician, who was ill of a disease no one has ever cured yet. The sick man realized that his case was hopeless, and he knew, too, that before he died he would go through horrible convulsions. He begged his friend to kill him in order to spare his wife the sight of anything so unforgettably hideous, and the physician, bound by his code of ethics, refused. The sick man begged his wife to let him have his revolver, but she refused. The physician locked the drawer of the bureau in which it lay and gave the wife the key. Two days later the sick man shot himself, and the revolver he used was his own. He had unlocked the drawer.

"We found the key in it," said the doctor. "It was not the one I had given to the wife. I took it, and when I had a chance I went quietly into the room occupied by the man's mother. The key exactly fitted the lock of her bureau. That's all I know, except that the mother came out of the house with her bonnet and cloak on two minutes before her son shot himself."—Washington Post.

A Fatal Fault.

"I have here some jokes," "You what?" asked the editor. "I said I have here some jokes." "Oh, you have some jokes. What kind of jokes are they?" "New, brand new. Never been used before." "Can't use 'em," said the editor. "It takes our readers too long to get used to the new ones. Good day."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Comparative Happiness.

If one only wished to be happy this could be easily accomplished, but we wish to be happier than other people, and this is always difficult, for we believe others to be happier than they are.—Montesquieu.

SENATE DECLARES HORROR CAUSED BY KILLING JEWS

made out of tapioca colored with lamp-black, and "the coffee we drink, Mocha and Java, is generally adulterated with Brazil coffee and ground coffee with sawdust and even bread crumbs."

Taking up a bottle of bright colored cherries marked "Marischino cherries," he explained the cherries had been picked green, then bleached and colored with aniline dye and, holding up a bright colored bit of cloth, he said, "this cloth was dyed with the same dye." Holding up a bottle with light colored liquid in it, Mann said it was honey. "Yet it never saw a hive, much less a comb. It is fresh from the glucose factory."

"Freezin'" Injurious.

Freezin', he said, was powder sold to preserve meat like cold storage. He admitted it might keep the meats from spoiling, but it was most injurious to health, being composed of sulphite of soda and red coal tar dye.

A fine grade of olive oil used by the Union League club of Philadelphia, turned out to be cotton seed oil with an adulterant.

Taking up the subject of canned tomatoes, Mann held up three cans, each being of different weight and yet all bought for three pounds.

"Department stores of New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and Washington and mail order houses sell the short weight cans," said Mann. His demonstration continued throughout the entire list and when he concluded he received an ovation.

Doctors and Solemnity.

The days are past when every self respecting doctor was expected to dress in a style tastefully blending the divine with the undertaker. But a "sustained and impenetrable solemnity" is still a priceless possession for those who would achieve success in medicine. If this is a natural gift, so much the better; if not, it should be acquired at any cost.—British Medical Journal.
